THURSDAY, NOV. 13, 1856.

POLITICAL ON DIT.—It is rumored that John Appleton of Portland is to become one of the editors of the Washington Union, under the Buchanan administration. Mr Appleton made a speech at the Democratic State Convention, in this city in July last in which he declared that the Cincinnati platform fully endorsed the principle of squatter sovereignty — that the people of the Territories have a right to exclude slavery. When he is translated to the editorial room of the Union if ever, we shall be curious to observe how he gets along with the South in declaring that Squatter Sovereignty is one of the planks of the Democratic platform. If he could edit & imply a Northern edition of the Union he might get along—and we suggest this arrangement.

Another rumor is that Mr Appleton is to have a seat in the new Cabinet, along side of Howell Cobb of Georgia. Whether the latter gentleman would agree with Mr Appleton's exposition of the Cincinnati platform as a great deal more than doubtful, and the quarrel no prophet to predict what explosion will be another thing with the dynamite parties.

THE VOTE OF THE NORTH AND THE UNION.—Let the people remember that Jonn C Fremont has a majority of more than TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND VOTES over Buchanan in the Northern States and furthermore, that a large part of the Fillmore voters would have gone for Fremont, but for the enormous lies set afloat by the scoundrel Brooks and his compeers. Let them also remember that Buchanan is in a MINORITY of at least FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND in the North—and is a minority of probably 300 000 in the whole Union—and yet the bunkum papers (vide Bangor Journal &c.) call this a national victory.

THE VOTE OF MAINE.—FOUR YEARS AGO. We have been requested by "Some Citizens of South Carolina" at Georgetown, to publish the official vote of Maine for Governor for the past four years. The vote this year has not yet been officially canvassed, but it is known with sufficient certainty. We give the totals as requested.

In 1852 the vote was
For Robert Pillsbury	67,895
Wm G Crosby	27 061
Anson P Morrill	13 307
Ezekiel Holmes	8 990
All others	158
Total	96,1.7

In 1855
Anson P Morrill had	41 441
Samuel Wells	38 345
Isaac Reed	6.0

Total	1 1 417

In 1856 the vote nearly complete is as follows

Hamlin Hannibal	67 429
Samuel Wells	45 881
Geo E Patten	3 66
Total	1.0 7

The last California papers bring a black letter war cloud from New York just before election to rusticate all Democratic papers, in favor of the California native that New York would give Fillmore 10 000 majority, and that most of the New England States would go for him! This is only a few of the brazen faced lying resorts to which the contemptible Democratic leaders will resort to the very last hour of the election. They know all that is necessary to secure success is to impress the unthinking portion of the voters with the idea that Buchanan is in a majority, and they rely upon the cowardly support of those who dare not speak their honest convictions for fear of losing custom. Let the people of Maine remember that Buchanan is in a MINORITY of at least FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND in the North—and is a minority of probably 300 000 in the whole Union—and yet the bunkum papers (vide Bangor Journal &c.) call this a national victory.

RENEWED SETTLEMENT OF DIFFICULTIES WITH ENGLAND.—It is rumored in the papers that letters received in Philadelphia from the Hon. George M Dallas, United States Minister to the Court of St James, are of the most confidential friends convey the intelligence that the long pending difficulties between the two countries have been amicably settled. It is further said that President Pierce has taken immediate steps to settle the difficulties and prepare the way to believe his friends, mainly out of a laudable desire to smooth the way of the incoming administration.

NEW ORLEANS.—The commerce of New Orleans for the past year has been larger than for any previous year. The New Orleans Crescent says, that a large number of buildings are in course of erection in that city, involving an expenditure of more than two millions of dollars. Among them are two splendid Asylums for orphans, one Jewish and one Catholic; a Masonic Institute, one Medical School, a Jewish synagogue, not to mention several other houses costing from $100 000 to $20,000 each. The New Custom House will not be completed in several years, it will cost $1 250,000.

The Parliament has caused to be sent and tendered to the government of New Granada a formal proposition for the cession to the United States of Panama, of the control over the Panama Railroad route the cities of Aspinwall and Panama, and a strip of the territory through which the road runs sufficiently wide to insure the protection of the route from future violence.

THANKSGIVING.—In order to treat with proper respect the day of Thanksgiving appointed by Governor Wells our employees will not labor to-day, and we shall issue no paper on Friday morning.

The City Missionary has distributed the following articles for Thanksgiving to 110 destitute families, viz: 66 turkeys, 30 geese, 86 lbs chickens and 200 lbs. rice—a cost of $78, 50.

Biographical Notice of Col. John Black.

In the autumnal era of a life of honored usefulness, died at Ellsworth, on the 25th of October last, Col. John Black, aged seventy five years.

Col Black was a native of England, having been born in London July 3 1781. At an early age he was employed as a clerk in the banking house of Horn & Co, one of whose members was interested as part owner in the Bellerophon, so famed in the battle of Trafalgar. In 1793 the late Gen Cobb of Gouldsborough in Hancock County, and John Richards, Esq of Boston were appointed by the House the Agents and Attorneys in this country to superintend the sale and settlement of these lands. Such was the confidence reposed in young Black that, though scarcely sixteen years old he was selected as a clerk to accompany Mr Richards (then in London) to Gouldsboro. How nobly he there until 1809 will not be removed to Ellsworth.

Upon the death of Gen Cobb Col Black was appointed in his place, and after Mr Richards' decease in 1824, he became, what he ever has been, agent and attorney of the Bingham Land Property.

Col. Black was twice married. His first wife was a daughter and his second wife now living a granddaughter of Gen Cobb. By his first marriage, his children were six sons and two daughters, all of whom are now living and, except one daughter, reside in Ellsworth.

For nearly sixty years Col Black was identified with the management of the Bingham lands, in this State, and for more than half of that time was sole agent and Attorney for this purpose. In the housing of these lands for timbering operations—in the sale of portions to actual settlers upon them—in opening and bounding the great roads, known so long and so favorably by the name through whose of the towns in his charge,—in our numerous and prompt surveys upon the settlement upon them, and in dispensing of the millions of acres under his supervision as trustee while agent for the Proprietary were not excelled by those of any agent, in the whole country that there is more than ordinary success and satisfaction to the adventurous purchaser; in all this, the agency of Col Black was of a marked character without waywardness but with a judgment ever considerate, uniform, just and deliberate, and the small fractions and conflicting interests of contiguous and individuals while high or low, rich or poor were sure to find in him a patient and candid listener to the story of their misfortunes and disappointments.

And not less satisfactory were his labors and accounts to the honorable commissioners which of late so long a period received Reports and accounts have been taken testimony in the behalf. Within almost the very last hour of his life as it were he received the results of certain tokens from some of the Old Estate of their high appreciation of his long and faithful services and of their desire that he should be remunerated beyond the allowances expectations of their long tried and trustworthy agent.

But of a mode in his semi public character does we accord to Col Black a high degree of integrity and usefulness. In all the private business relations of his life, his character is unimpeached. His accumulations, which came through the legitimate and honorable channels of honest, persistent and industrious effort, did not in the least harden his heart. No man could say to him you have done me an intentional wrong, or could find him more than half way to adjustment of any difficulty between them—nor if he has forgiven, and forgotten what he many a man—by many a profession even—would have been carried beyond the grave.

About seven years since Col Black met with a severe misfortune in the loss of his sight.—Accidentally dashing the point of one of his eyes had become so diseased by a cataract that his sight was completely destroyed, he continued eminently useful, who, deeming the operation safe, and success more than hopefully sure, undertook to remove it. For a few days after the operation there was every augury of success but unfortunately a sympathetic inflammation attacked the other eye and despite the best exertions of the skill of both eyes lost. We have heard Col Black with the most singular calmness and Christian fortitude relate the incident by which he had covered his original loss of sight and deadening the subsequent operation and its fatal result. To be thus suddenly cut off from the social power and privileges which he had enjoyed for nearly three score years and ten must indeed have been an overwhelming blow. It was truly a calamity which those whose vision was all bright and unimpaired cannot measure. But he with his reflective faculties mind, sought hold at once of the true compensation for irremediable affliction—a heroic uneffected resignation to all its painful circumstances deprivations.

In the more private and social relations of life, as well as those of a citizen Col Black was a true and noble man. He always took a deep interest in the welfare of the town in which he lived, in the advancement of its schools in the support of its ministry, and the cultivation of that good regard for law and order.

He loved the country of his birth and the country of his adoption, regarding them as twin brothers, whose hands should be ever grasped in friendship and who, united, could wield the decisions of the world to every benevolent and patriotic issue. He was benificent in his acts, as he was benevolent in his thoughts. None worthy applied to him in vain, none in distress went empty-handed away, and there was a gentle thoughtfulness in the time and manner of his bounties, that spoke more of the kind pulsations of his heart than the larger gifts of others spread out to view to the gaze and wonder of the world. Tolerant, he was not the christianity of a sect but of the bible. He never judged harshly, but regarded with respect and attention the opinions of others, however adverse to his own. By education, more physical and intellectual, he was eminently fitted for the sphere of life within which it was his good fortune to be thrown. For the high est mark in it to move fully at ease, and with God's blessing on his faithful and earnest efforts, he succeeded as he deserved to succeed. In the circle of Home, there was a constant gushing forth of kindly thoughts and actions of considerations for others rather than of himself which gave a charm to his person and character that attracted to him as ever as fervent and as unselfish as it is rare.

He has gone,—but he leaves behind him a long track of bright examples for the emulation of the young who in his history may see a force following of their own according to the talent that God has given them and in memory will long survive and embalmed in the affection of those who knew and appreciated his noble and manly qualities, unembittered and untarnished by a single act of meanness injustice, or oppression.

LAUNCHED.—From the yard of Master Tewksbury, yesterday, (Wednesday) afternoon a handsome and thoroughly built bark of 447 tons burthen, owned by Capt A J Rose and Capt Simon Ross of this city. Messrs. Darling Spofford and Bernard of Bucksport and others. She is fastened in the most thorough manner, and is said to be a good built vessel of her class as was ever launched on the river. Her cabin is finished in a style very creditable to the taste of her builders, and the arrangements in every part are comfortable and convenient. She has a poop deck, which gives her extra capacity to the amount of 700 bar els. The bark is to be commanded by Capt Simon Ross.

At Paris lately the Comtesse Charles Pitz James, in passing through a room where an full dress, stepped upon a lucifer match lying up on the floor by which her clothes were set on fire. She was so badly burned that after several weeks of severe suffering she died.

CARS.—Lewis Island railway track was completed on the 12th and an engine passed over the entire length of the road. A portion of the road remains to be gravelled up. The freight and passenger depots are completed and an engine house & shops is in progress.

PEPPERMINT WINE.—Ambrose Werren at the Granite Block has a very excellent article of raspberry wine manufactured by himself from the pure juice of the fruit without any addition of spirit. It is an article which can be safely used in sickness and we have no doubt will be much better for the high priced imported wine.

Thanks to Bryant's Express for Boston evening papers in advance of the mail.

The Mormons adopting the Cincinnati Platform.

The New York Evening Post publishes the following proclamation issued by the authorities of Great Salt Lake to the faithful. It fully endorses the Democratic party as the champion of slavery and polygamy.

TO THE LATTER DAY SAINTS

THE ELDERS AND RULERS OF THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER DAY SAINTS TO THE SAINTS IN THE U. S. OF AMERICA.

Dear Brethren, fair Zion to lovers of the Lord and Recipients of His Grace

We call upon you to stand firm to the principles of our religion in the coming contest for President of the country. Our duty is plain. There are two principles in the country—one is for us and the other against us.

The Democratic Convention in Cincinnati which nominated James Buchanan for President passed the following resolution

Resolved That Congress has no power under the Constitution to interfere with or control the domestic question of the several States and that all such States are the sole and proper judges of everything appertaining to the domestic affairs not prohibited by the Constitution.

This is the principle of the Democratic party, which they have extended to Kansas as well as Slaves, and the doctrine of Squatter Sovereignty applies to us in Deseret as well as to the settlers in Kansas and Nebraska.

The Democratic party the instrument, the Gods hand by which is to be effected is organized on a sectional basis with the design to exterminate us. Its success will be the triumph of sectionalism, and the advancement of the cause of Christ in the last days. Its defeat will be the triumph of the principles of liberty, and the defeat of the sectional party.

Therefore, brethren, we say to you, that it is the duty of the Saints to use every honorable means to defeat the election of Buchanan.

In these times a good thing should never be lost. We therefore appropriate the following which we find in our Cobleskill contemporary:

Burial of "Sam."

BY ONE OF US.

Not a flag is hung; nor floral wreath
And he looked so foully blurred
Then will ed—fried up—and kinder gin out
As we lit'd over round him about.

We buried him darkly that Tuesday night
(For we feared he'd not keep 'till morning)
By the struggling moonbeams dim light,
And each man ran dimly burning.

No useless coffin enclosed his frame,
In a sheet of tip Cheese we wound him;
Everlasting we knew will be his rest
While no copy print about him.

NEW COUNTERFEITS.—Merchants' Bank of Salem, Mass. Eyres, photographic, finely done. Parties handling money should be on the look out for this note, as it may be considered a dangerous counterfeit. By holding the back of the bill to the light and examining it carefully, you discern a photographic appearance, the paper being very brittle. Vignette medallion heads on each corner, watch dog, vide fidelity, in the centre. Also American eagle with spears and shield. There are also counterfeits on the Mechanics' Bank Burlington, altered—eagle and shield on upper left corner—portrait of Washington straight centre.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

$2 per square for three insertions—$1 a week for continuance.

Holloway's Pills.—Astonishing Cure of a Bad Leg.—Mr Patrick McKeon, of Columbia Co., N. Y., was for many years afflicted with a bad leg, which baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of that section. Various remedies were resorted to, but without effect, and he was finally pronounced incurable. At length he was induced to try Holloway's Pills and Ointment, and by a few weeks' use of these medicines he was entirely restored to health. Holloway's Pills and Ointment are the only remedies that can be relied upon in cases of this kind. Sold at the manufactory, 244 Strand, London, and by all respectable druggists throughout the world.

MORE BORDER RUFFIAN OUTRAGES—SUFFERINGS OF THE FREE STATE SETTLERS—GOV GEARY A LIAR.

Correspondence of the N Y Tribune.

LAWRENCE K T Nov 5 1856

A Mr Reddell who came in with the party under Colonel Eldridge, and who with some twenty others have taken claims on the Pottawatomie River arrived here on Monday with a report that there is a settlement of slaveholders and Missourians and Georgians who are congregating about the neighborhood of Bull Creek, endeavoring by acts of murder and outrages not unbecoming to anticipate attack, to discourage the Free State people and to abandon their claims. Mr Reddell took back a quantity of arms and ammunition for distribution among his men, so that it is quite probable that the whole aboliosm of these scoundrels may expire in gore.

On Saturday last a company of these Georgians, study with their Negroes, men by the name of Jones, living on the Santa Fe Road, massacred wantonly and without provocation Mr Sutton (Free State) who was working peacefully on his claim—shot him, and drove him into a house where they left him with threats of murder.

Afterward on the same day, a party of Georgians met Brown (whose name has escaped my memory) going to Westport for a load of provisions, whom, on gathering that he was opposed to the admission of Kansas as a Slave State, one of them rapidly shot—the ball entering the back, near the region of the spinal column, and coming out just below his heart. He is not yet dead but lingering in extreme agony.

The Committee have opened rooms in Lawrence for the distribution of clothing and provisions sent on here from the East. From sure to outrage, the rooms, it is fully stored with applicants for relief—men, women and children, haggard and pale, and almost demanded, with harrowing tales of insult and outrage and murder and destruction of their little all, by the acts of these worse than devils.—Some have lived on boiled squash, others alone on pumpkins some on green corn ground in coffee mills, and some have been so harassed and hunted that they can hardly tell how they have lived. Most of the applicants are exceedingly destitute and some whose tatters rustle in the wind, for no high eye neated that they would deem discreditable to the most polished and fashionable.

The infamous Clark, murderer of Barber passed through our town to day, escorted by about twenty dragoons, the dastardly wretch being too much afraid to come among us alone. So true is it that the wicked flee when no man pursueth.

The conspirators at Lecompton were acquitted yesterday, eight of whom were, however re arrested on the charge of having assisted in the destruction of Titus's house. The seven who resisted Lawrence came in to day for change of clothing;—noble fellows all of them;—yet, in consequence of being so huddled together in such a filthy hole as their present Lecompton, they were physically about the most loathsome and abhorrent set of men I have ever seen—a sentiment which needs no comment.

About a week since, when Gov Geary was in the region of Osawatomie, he gave Martin White, the notorious assassinator of Fredrick Brown, half a dozen dragoons that he (White) might assist him in his arrests of Free State men who are guilty of no earthly crime save that of getting from the pro slaveryites the property of which they have been robbed. Thus is pacification with a vengeance.

Search for the wrecked Steamer Lyonnais.

Homans Hole, Nov. 17.

Arrived the U.S. mail steamer Marion, Fox, in search of the wrecked steamer Lyonnais from New-York for Havre. She has been off Nantucket shoals since Monday, about 70 miles S. E. of Nantucket. She encountered heavy N. W. gales and rough seas on the 15th inst., 71.30, spoke the bank T. B. Wilson, Boston, she had been in the vicinity of Nantucket shoals two days, and had seen no other vessels there or steamers; at 1 30 P. M., the Marion spoke the schr. Eugenia of Yarmouth, who gave no information. At 5 30 P. M. spoke the ship Ocean Star from Liverpool for Boston, under close reefed sails, who could give no information. Two Nantucket pilot boats were also spoken, but could give no information, many of the fishermen have been here to gain information, Hanay, of the U. S. revenue steamer, and has proceeded thro' Vineyard Sound, intending to make another cruise to the southward of Nantucket.

Cotton.—Mr. Ames's Small of Bath, had a small fracture on Tuesday, by a plank falling backland striking him, in Trefethen & Simmonds's ship yard. Not expected to survive.

Wm. R. Palmer of Belfast was severely but not dangerously injured, last week, by the falling of a plank at the launch of the "Shannon's side." A son of Mr. Hall was also injured.

Insurance in Good Springs.—The Independent Mechanics of Rockland, held a Grand Levee and Supper last Wednesday, "to celebrate the glorious triumph of their principles on the election of the Pilgrim Fathers."

The Canton Bank Closed.—Waterville, Me., Nov. 15.—The Canton Bank, of Chicago, was closed yesterday, by the State Commissioner.

Sugar.—The high price of sugars and the effort to manufacture a supply at home has given a new impetus to a proposition to repeal the duty or that article entirely. The subject will probably come before Congress at its next session.

Odd as a Chronometer.—A good story about Dr. Chase's chirography may be found on the first page. It reminds us of a story told concerning the writing of L. W. Brooks, the great rat, and manager of Michigan. He had written a letter to a man on the Central route, notifying him that he must remove a barn, which in some manner incommoded the road, under penalty of prosecution. The threatened individual was unable to read any part of the letter but the signature, but took it to be a free pass on the road, and used it a couple of years as such, none of the conductors being able to read it his interpretation of the document.—Boston Telegraph.

Cheap & Convenient Building.

Door, Sash and Blind Factory.

A. DUNBAR

HAS been very successful in completing several tracts for Door Frames, Doors, Window Frames and Sashes on Islands for good dwelling houses and other buildings to be erected the ensuing season. He has excellent workmen on hand employed, and a superior stock got at the lowest market price to put into boats to build the best articles of door frames. Will also furnish sash and blinds made to any dimensions and of superior quality, either for a whole building or detached, as may be desired. The valuable and expensive blinding, veneering &c heretofore have been confined to the cabinet makers, and separately to the carpenters, have only to put them in their places in the structure.

The business has now become so well established that only a small margin is left in knowing before hand the cost of doing the house while the work is of a uniform excellent quality.

Any one intending can examine specimens of the work at the factory near the Penobscot Lock or at the store of M. S. Jackson on Exchange street and at either place any article may be obtained or large quantity ordered.

Mr. Dunbar is also prepared to furnish Window Blinds ready painted, and will manufacture at the shortest notice.

By long experience and by determined perseverance, the subscriber is now enabled to suit his customers both in quality and price, and so well ornamented is the business that no man should now think of building in the old and slow and imperfect methods
